

Donald Trump vs Donald Trump

A dice entertainment for one – or is it two? – on possibly the best President ever – or the worst? If you’re looking at this, you’re probably a loser anyway.

Donald Trump is a highly divisive figure – for some he’s the greatest, for some he’s a stain on democracy. And hey, that plays out in his own mind. Imagine how confused WE get.

This is a bigly good simple dice entertainment inspired by The Donald’s mental state, and the confusing world around him..... y’know, some of these folks, Pelosi, Bannon, are crazy. I’ve seen how good it is, and let me tell you, it’s great. We could sell it to the North Koreans, they love America. If you’re a loser you could call it a board game, some people just like that kind of thing. I even suppose you’ll want to find out how to play it by reading page two.

Do I have to tell you this?

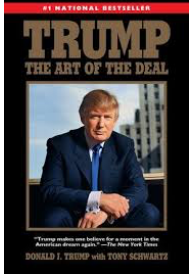

The game is played in up to 36 episodes of POTUS 45 Making America Great Again. When you get bored, stop playing and go and play golf or do something useful with your life. How you play is easy – just follow these simple instructions, they're very very simple, so simple, a simple person could play it simply. Get two dice of different colors, even losers have those: just grab 'em.

- Sit at your presidential desk. Get some sucker to print and lay out The State of the Donald boards, and put a marker on the green boxes. It could be a golf ball, I don't know. Aren't those pictures of The Donald fantastic? Hey Mikey, get some coffee.
- Roll a dice on the first track of the board. This tells you how great the best President in the world is feeling when he gets out of bed. Sometimes it's not so good, but hey, even champs have their off days, look at Tiger. Do I have to tell you to put a marker on the number you roll? Are you that stupid?
- Next: Let's see what's in the diary. This could be a good day, a great day. When I met Melania, that was a great day. Roll two dice, the first one is the first number, and the second one is the second number. Or you could roll your dice together and call one number the Tens column and the other the Ones column. If you can do that, you're college material and will love wasting your life on this kind of thing. Read off the result, and you'll find out what easy challenges get in the way of your golf today. Tick the box so you don't have the same day again, let some sucker deal with it next time and move on to another problem. Being President is great, even the French love it.
- OK, let's see how the day goes. Roll two dice. You Socialists love that type of thing, don't you? Add how I'm feeling today. Read the result on the table marked This Was How Great My Day Was track. Of course, if you're a college boy or girl (if you can decide which one of those you are) you won't need me to tell you that.
- You get a nice story of what happens, possibly one of The Great Trump Stories. And a result you apply to the Donald Trump vs Donald Trump Mood Track to find out what happens to my fantastic mood. Do I have to tell you that you move the marker up or down the track?, just do it. Hey, this is clever, I bet the Iranian students would print a big copy off and burn it.
- Time to rest, watch some Fox TV, do some tweets. It's always a new day tomorrow. Say your prayers like a good American.
- If you're not feeling so good, send for the physician to give you a tablet. The tablet will move your Mood Scale two spaces up or down. Decide what you want and they'll do it for you, uppers or downers, these doctors are sometimes clever. Try not to run out of the four tablets, what do think this is, the Socialist NHS for losers?
- At the end of the game, you lose. The Donald wins. Always. That's how it works, it's not South America.

Did anybody tell you there's a great game called golf for regular guys?

Following

Hillary Clinton's Emails, many of which are Classified Information, got hacked by China. Next move better be by the FBI & DOJ or, after all of their other missteps (Comey, McCabe, Strzok, Page, Ohr, FISA, Dirty Dossier etc.), their credibility will be forever gone!
