THE NUGGET Colour Supplement

No.355 August 2023

EDITORIAL

I'm as pleased as ever to present the August 2023 edition of the Nugget Colour Supplement.

As usual, the main event in this article is COW, which this year was at Missenden Abbey for the first time at the start of last month. What I want to do in this issue is to give a cross-section of some of the photos to give an overall feel for that sunny weekend. There is also a visual gaming hack I've done which I'd like to bring to your attention.

Whatever it is you're doing, do send in pictures of it! You'll find me as usual at russellking712@hotmail.com

Thank you and I hope you enjoy the issue!

COW 2023 THE OVERVIEW Thankfully now free of social distancing requirements

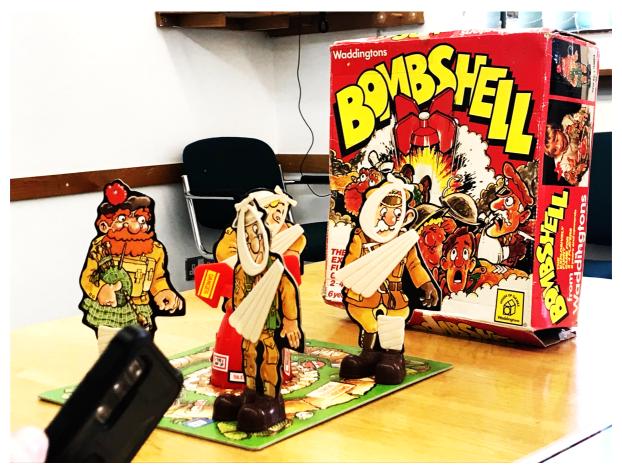

Spot the difference competition:

- Battle of Algiers Allied Artists USA
- Je Ne Regrette Rien Ian Drury

- "can we close the door we can hear you in the next room: so much fun as the PLO and Israelis assess what to do in 1967, courtesy of Bruce Quarrie
- a most tasteful filler simulation to top off the Save Gordon session

"Arrested: Gudrun Ensslin spreading illegal propaganda around West Berlin" – Charlotte solves the case against the Red Army Faction in a new record of 54 minutes.

Sir Evelyn Wood

Objectives:

- 1. Obey all direct orders!
- 2. Urge the use of the direct route
- to Khartoum
- 3. Fight bravely and with honour!

Start in Lower Egypt with the 1st Royal Irish Regiment

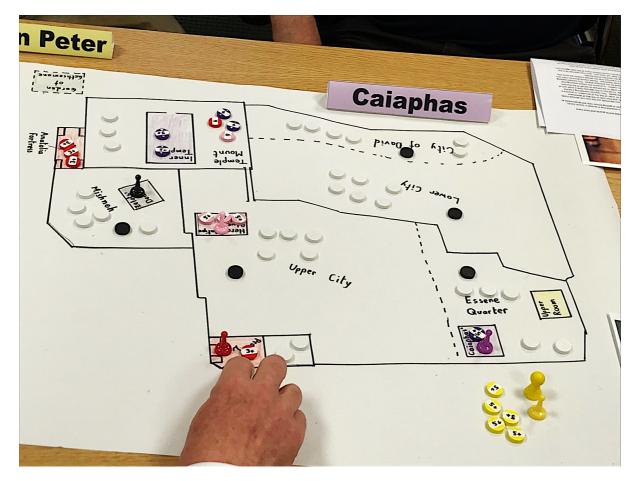

Top: On the eve of nuclear war, The Head of Religious Programming blesses the work of the Emergency Broadcasting Service

Below: Michael Young's beautiful game Messiah? about rioting in Biblical times in Jerusalem

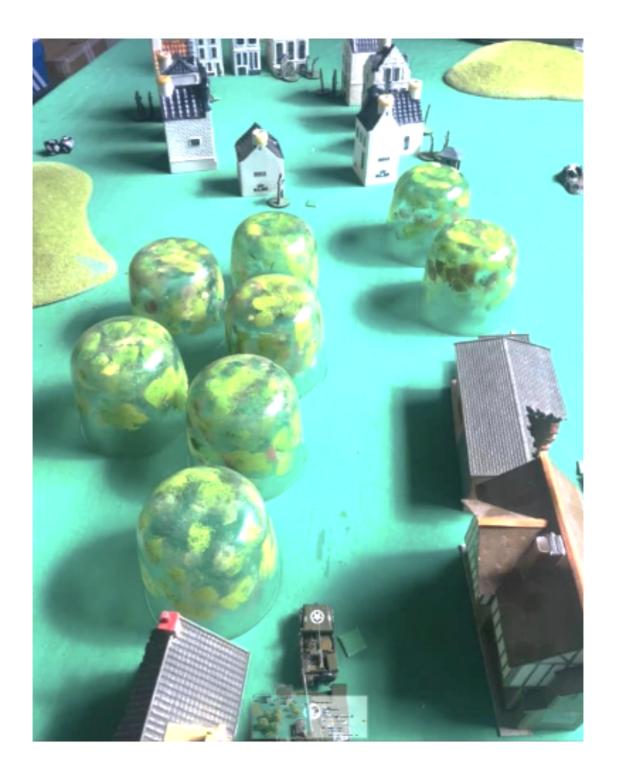

Next page: Mike Elliot's elegant Little Spanish Ulcer deals with an attack on a column of French infantry and a Countess in a Coaching inclident
